

Château Cap de Faugères 2018

Castillon – Côtes de Bordeaux

September 2021 – Guide Hachette

Complexe, équilibré, avec un bon retour de fruits noirs, ce vin bien épaulé par un élevage en fût constitue un des beaux spécimens de son terroir. Cassis, mûre, épices se mêlent au nez et en bouche, accompagnant une trame charnue, de bon volume, avec une structure tannique imposante. Un beau potentiel se profile.

17,5+/20

Dichtes Rubin, violette Reflexe. Sehr kräftige, holzdominierte Nase, edles Holz, dahinter intensive, dunkle Frucht. Der Gaumen schmeichelhaft weich, breitet sich dann aus, zeigt einiges an Tannin, dieses leicht trocknend, die Säure ist stimmig, die Frucht reif jedoch nicht plump, in sich ausgewogen, ohne anspruch auf Grösse jedoch von sehr guter Qualität. Ideal für die Gastronomie. 2024-2034

March 2021 – The Wine Cellar Insider, Jeff Leve

92/100

Fresh and juicy, the wine pops with all its ripe, plums, cherries, licorice, coffee bean, cocoa and spice. Lush, opulent and packed with sweet, red and dark red berries, this is good now, but a few more years in the cellar will make it even better. The wine was made from a blend of 85% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon.

91/100

A blend of 85% Merlot and the balance Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon, from the cooler Castillon region to the east of Saint-Emilion, the 2018 Château Cap De Faugères reveals a healthy ruby/purple hue as well as lots of pretty red and blue fruits, notes of candied orange, tobacco, and violets, no hard edges, silky tannins, and both beautiful balance and purity. It's a terrific Castillon to enjoy over the coming decade or so.

January 2021 – James Suckling

91/100

Fresh blueberries, crushed brambleberries and licorice on the nose with a touch of cocoa powder. It's medium-to full-bodied with firm, creamy tannins and fresh acidity. Succulent finish. Try from 2022.

Décembre 2020 – Yves Beck

90/100

Robe dense aux reflets violets. Bouquet intense et subtil marqué par des notes de graphite, d'épices et de réglisse. Attaque friande et racée. En bouche le vin a des tannins serrés, puissants mais également une certaine astringence en finale. Un vin juteux, expressif que l'on pourra approcher dans sa jeunesse... si on aime les vins énergiques. Sinon il faut un peu patienter.

92/100

This has a gorgeous violet edging to the colour with clear oak influence, veering to smoky and working well. There is a clear tightening through the mid palate, as you would expect from the limestone soils, but it will soften over ageing and they have captured plenty of juice running through the blueberry and blackberry fruits. The Denz estates in general have been successful in 2018.

91-93/100

Round, dark, juicy and loaded to the brim with ripe black cherries, licorice, espresso and plums, this is a richly styled lush textured wine.
