

CHATEAU PEBY FAUGÈRES

GRAND CRU CLASSE
SAINT-EMILION

Château Péby Faugères 2022

Saint-Emilion Grand Cru Classé

Mai 2023 – The Wine Cellar Insider, Jeff Leve

95-97/100

Inky dark in color, the opulent wine delivers its layers of velvet, and cashmere textured fruits effortlessly. The wine is deep, concentrated, and long. It is also fresh, balanced and even with all of its palate-staining levels of fruit, the wine is never heavy. It remains harmonious and intense. Though, the oak presence is quite strong, so it will need time to fully come together. The wine is produced from 100% old vine Merlot. Harvesting took place September 8. Drink from 2027-2050.

Mai 2023 – Falstaff, Peter Moser

97/100

Deep ruby colour, inky opaque core, purple reflections, brightening on the rim. Fine wood spice, fully ripe cherries, chocolate, tobacco, herbal savouriness. Substantial on the palate, elegant, red berryish nuances, vivid, integrated tannins, salty, mineral finish, nougat in the aftertaste. Shows length and certain ageing potential, a combination of depth and finesse.

May 2023 – Tasting book, Markus del Monego

97/100

Dark purple color with violet hue and black core. Elegant nose with fine concentration and very good persistence. Pure fruit reminiscent of plums, blackberries, black cherries and hints of wild strawberries. In the background floral tones reminiscent of wisteria and peonies. Fine toasting and elegant oak. On the palate well-structured and balanced with full-bodied character, great elegance, freshness and excellent aromatic depth and exciting tension.

Mai 2023 – Bernard Burstchy

94-95/100

Avril 2023 – Yves Beck

97-99/100

Que de délicatesse et de finesse dans le bouquet de Péby Faugères ! J'ai connu ce vin bien plus exubérant, plus démonstratif. Aujourd'hui il me semble surtout vouloir montrer qu'il peut bien plus que cela ! Ainsi, il ne manque pas de révéler la fraîcheur et la force de son terroir. Il est tellement important de laisser de la place au terroir qui opère une magie que l'on a peut-être trop mise en retrait par le passé. La notion de pureté et de précision est évidente. Le vin a du corps, de la densité. Ses tannins, crémeux et veloutés, ont une redoutable puissance, parfaitement canalisée par l'ensemble des éléments présents et par une structure acide insoupçonnée, incisive, qui agit en coulisses en conférant du tempérament. Quelle métamorphose, quel vin brillant. Il est persistant, saillant, énergique et défiant. Une très grande réussite.

April 2023 - James Suckling

97-98/100

A very fine tannined red with a linear line running through it, which drives the whole thing. Black berry, bark and walnut character. Medium to full body with a juicy finish. Light bitter lemons and oranges. Chewy, yet the tannins are well-integrated. 100% merlot. From organically grown grapes.
